Terms and conditions of use

Salix Finance Ltd ("Salix") offers 100% interest-free capital to the public sector to improve their energy efficiency and reduce their carbon emissions. Salix' loans have to comply with certain conditions as to type of equipment being installed and its financial and carbon savings efficiency. Salix has developed a suite of simple "tools" available for users to download for free to help users estimate their anticipated financial and carbon savings for each scheme they want to assess using data provided by the user.

Non-disclosure

Salix and/or the users acknowledge that they may receive or become aware of confidential information relating to the other party. Except to the extent that disclosure is expressly permitted, or otherwise agreed in writing between the parties, each party shall treat the confidential information provided by the other party as confidential and safeguard it accordingly and not disclose the confidential information provided by the other party to any other person (except their employees, agents, and professional advisers to whom and to the extent to which such disclosure is necessary for the purposes contemplated in considering eligibility for Salix finance and subject to procuring that such persons are made aware of and shall comply with these obligations of confidentiality.

Intellectual property rights
