- 3.5 Advocates can be used by those individuals who are not able or do not feel sufficiently confident to represent themselves.
- 3.6 Customers who have a disability that prevents them from submitting a written complaint may request that a member of staff completes any required documentation on their behalf.

- 3.8 In the rare event that complaints are vexatious or malicious, Learners bringing those complaints may be subject to the college's Learner Conduct Procedure.

4 LEARNER ASSESSMENT AND APPEALS POLICY AND PROCEDURES

4.1 The Customer Complaint and Grievance Procedure is not intended to replace the established Learner Assessment and Appeals Policy and Procedures.

5 PROCEDURES

5.1 Informal Stage

5.1.1 When a customer has a complaint or grievance, it may first be discussed with a member of the college staff and attempts should be made to resolve the matter by a direct approach to the persons involved where appropriate.

5.2 Investigation

5.2.1 If the matter remains unresolved the customer may raise a formal complaint or grievance either:

- verbally to any manager of the college
- in writing: a Customer Complaint Form (Appendix One) is available from College Receptions
- in writing to the Managing Director of Education and Training
- by email to complaints@lincolncollege.ac.uk

In each of the above the details of the complaint or grievance will be recorded on the Customer Complaint Form.

5.2.2 All completed Customer Complaint Forms will be logged and distributed as follows:

- Complaints regarding curriculum areas will be sent to the relevant Head of Learning/Training and Skills.
- Complaints regarding issues that are not directly curriculum-related will be sent to the relevant senior member of the Unit or Directorate.
- Complaints regarding members of staff will be sent to the relevant Head of Learning/Training and Skills or Head of Unit unless they are deemed serious enough to be passed to the Group Head of Human Resources for consideration.

A letter of acknowledgement will be sent to the customer with the name of the allocated respondent and the proposed response date included.

5.2.3 The customer may request a personal interview with the allocated respondent. The interview should be arranged within five working days of the submission of the request and the person may be accompanied by a suitable responsible person.

5.2.4 The allocated respondent shall conduct an investigation into the matter and send a written reply to the customer within ten working days of receipt of the formal complaint. If it is not possible to complete an investigation within that time the customer will be informed in writing and a new deadline given.

5.2.5 In cases involving complaints regarding members of staff which have been referred to the Group Head of Human Resources, who will respond directly to the customer.

5.3 Formal Investigation

5.3.1 If, after any action to resolve the complaint or grievance, the customer is still dissatisfied, they may request a personal interview with the relevant Director (in cases involving higher education (HE) provision this will be the Director for Sport, HE and the Arts). The interview shall be arranged within ten working days of the submission of the request, and the learner may if they wish be accompanied at the interview by a suitable responsible person. The Director will conduct a formal investigation, interview all parties concerned, take steps to resolve the issue and initiate appropriate action.

5.4 Appeals Procedures

5.4.1 If a complaint remains unresolved then there is a right of appeal to the Complaint and Grievance Appeals Committee. The complainant should make this appeal to the Head of Quality Improvement within five working days of receiving notification of the outcome of the formal investigation.

5.4.2 The Complaint and Grievance Appeals Committee shall comprise of the Managing Director of Education and Training (or appointed deputy), a representative of the Student Executive and a member of the Learning Standards Quality Committee. If the appeal is in relation to a Higher Education course, the Head of Higher Education (or deputy) shall also be required to attend.

5.4.3 All relevant documents shall be submitted to the Complaint and Grievance Appeals Committee within ten working days of the receipt of the notice of appeal. The parties concerned if they so wish, may make additional submissions and should be present at the hearing or may be required to attend and may be accompanied by a friend.

5.4.4 The appeal shall be heard not more than twenty working days after the receipt of the notice, and refusal of either party to attend shall not invalidate the proceedings. A majority decision of the Complaints and Grievance Appeals Committee is final.

6 RECURSE BEYOND APPEAL

6.1 For all courses, other than those validated by an HEI, if the complainant does not feel that the matter has been satisfactorily resolved at the conclusion of the college Customer Complaint and Grievance Procedure then s/he may complain to the relevant awarding body or funding authority, for example, the Education and Skills Funding Agency.

6.2 For complaints relating to HE provision/higher apprenticeship provision, validated by a higher education institution (HEI) or accredited by an external body, if the complainant does not feel that the matter has been satisfactorily resolved, they have a right of appeal to the awarding organisation or accrediting body. At this point the complainant will be directed to the relevant awarding organisation's appeal procedures (see appendix three).

If the complainant does not feel that the matter has been satisfactorily resolved at the conclusion of the HEI's appeals procedure, s/he may complain to the Office of the Independent Adjudicator (OIA).
